Admirals Course

Our 18 hole Championship course, originally designed by Frank Penninck in 1972, has recently been redesigned by Internationally recognised Architects Mackenzie & Ebert (Turnberry, Port Rush etc) in 2017.

The course consists of 6739yds (white tees) of rolling, undulating combination of heathland and parkland terrain, with a par of 73. A pleasant relaxing walk with ponds and the Dover Beck meandering through the Course coming in to play on some of the holes.

The 19th Hole

By retaining the natural character of the original farm buildings, which house the clubhouse facilities, a truly special off course environment has been created. Our restaurant offers everything from tea and toast to bar snacks and an extensive dinner menu. We also have a large conservatory spike bar where you can relax before or after your round. Oakmere can cater for all occasions from the club disco to a wedding banquet, seating up to 150 people.

Commanders Course

Our 9 hole course, named after Commander Mortensen, is a shorter length course of 5433 yds with a par of 68 with 18 separate tees to 9 greens offering a different challenge on the front and back 9. This course offers an interesting contrast when combined with the Admirals course for 27 holes or on its own as a 9 or 18 hole layout.
